

JUDITH SCARPONE as Mrs. Abignali

A consummate professional of Stage, Television and Film, Judith joined the cast of EVERYBODY WANTS TO BE ITALIAN through an open call submission. Her endearing look and study of Italian culture and charms made her the frontrunner for the role of Mrs. Abignali, and the softer side of old-world Italy.

She brings with her Broadway experience, including a run with "The Twilight of the Golds," as well as over 100 off-Broadway and Regional shows. She also has extensive television movie and series credits including "Roseanne: Portrait of a Domestic Goddess," "A Mother's Wish," "Bachelor's Baby," "A Case For Murder," "A Match Made in Heaven," "The Twilight of the Gold's" and guest appearances on "Law & Order" "ER," "Dragnet," "Education of Max Bickford," "Drew Carey," and "Ellen." Judith was also series regular on Showtime's critically acclaimed show "BEDTIME."

Judith can be seen on the big screen in THE MANUAL, DIVORCED WHITE MALE, WELCOME BACK MISS MARY and JESUS-MARY & JOEY.
